Halloween's almost upon us and this year's going to be more ghoulish than ever!

We know there are few things scarier than the rate at which children grow (nor the cost of Halloween costumes), so from 17th to 20th October we're running a Halloween Costume Exchange.

Please bring any old or outgrown costumes to donate and take anything that's a better fit for you. If you don't have anything to give, but need some new gear, that's fine too - help yourself.

The costumes will be in the lobby of the new nursery (don't worry, we'll put signs up).

Pupils will no doubt want to spend half term trying on their terrifying new threads, but leave some time for pumpkin carving too!

Remember to bring your carved pumpkins in from October 31st and they'll be judged on November 2nd. Prizes await the most putrid designs.

Wondering where to get a pumpkin from? The Charles Darwin Shopping Centre will be giving them away over half term, and head over to the PFTA socials for inspiration on what to do with the bits you discard.

Happy Halloween!
